

Roberto A. Rada-Prada

Senior Consultant / Miami

Contact Information:

954-428-1422

rradaprada@rimkus.com

Background

Mr. Rada-Prada holds a B.S degree in Civil and Construction Engineering and an M.S degree in Enterprise Resource Management.

He is registered professional engineering in Virginia, Florida and Texas with extensive experience in planning and project management control including construction, designing, supplying and assembling of electromechanical equipment with emphasis on hydropower, telecommunication, water and wastewater, infrastructure, and transportation systems.

His experience and industry knowledge covers over 26 years in areas of project management, including construction administration for clients and contractors, preparation of technical and work progress reports; specifications for construction, inspection and permitting for the construction of public and private projects, investigation and analysis of residential, commercial, and industrial development projects designs to validate purpose and costs. He has handled preparation and negotiation of public and private bids, as well as budgets, cost control and change orders.

Mr. Rada-Prada's areas of expertise include the managing of master schedules for a hydropower and oil prospection and exploration projects.

Education and Certifications

- Enterprise Resource Management, M.S.: Strayer University

- Administrative Studies (post graduate): UPSA Santa Cruz de La Sierra, Bolivia
- Civil Engineering, Civil and Construction Engineering, B.S.: National Technological University, Buenos Aires, Argentina
- Professional Engineer: Virginia, Florida and Texas